There has been a lot going on in the last few months. Thursday 17th May a Bill was tabled before NSW state parliament, titled the "Public Health Amendment (Safe Access to Reproductive Health Clinics) Bill 2010" which would make protesting and offering support to women going into an abortion still an illegal activity.

Just yesterday Channel 9 interviewed Paul Harcourt, Executive Director of Family Life International about the Bill and the activities of the 'Helgers' of God's Precious Infants. Unfortunately and not to our surprise Channel 9 had an ulterior motive in doing this story. A lot of you may be aware they showed footage of a man being punched by another man who was with the prayer group outside a Stevy Hill's abortion clinic. Paul received an email from a supporter of ours asking for more details on what happened. Here is his reply:

"Yes, Channel Nine came and interviewed me today concerning about the Shapiro/Kabus Bill however, all he wanted to do was justify it by highlighting the scuffle back in January 2010 where one of our people was involved and was charged with a month, but the case was thrown out by the Court. The other perpetrator was a young man who was certainly after trouble and has a long rap sheet. He didn't bother coming to Court in fact which pretty well destroyed the case for the Police."

The point I made to the journalist was this Bill is meant to be about protecting women and there was no woman involved at all. He grumbled some inside the whole time. Police had been called and attended and quite to him before this incident but he totally ignored them. They said everything will be ok despite our protestations and left. None of this is justification for John hitting him but it certainly gives perspective.

Channel Nine obviously got this footage, probably anyway from the Private Clinic whose manager Paul Norcross appeared on the news item. I said to the reporter that in 24 years of doing this, that this one incident is all he could find. Our reporter is right though and it is disgusting. The 600 women we've helped and the stories of harassment and assault against us was of no interest to them it appears.

That particular "Helger" no longer attends. "The guy was saying he'd 77% his wife and daughters who were over the road. John said he thought he was going to hit him or let him go."

Of course we do not condone hitting people, but there is a whole backdrop to this particular incident which the media wanted nothing to do with. This just highlights how far the media is general in its filters. They are run by ideologues who will only push their views onto society.

Paul Harcourt, after doing the interview spoke to Chris O'Keefe the Channel 9 reporter, this is what he said to Chris "I told him he lacked integrity and challenged him to report both sides of the issue. I told him about ourselves again so he he says well you should expect that because of what you do. So much for an unbiased and professional media."

This says it all. No wonder that people in today's world are so blind, because all they get fed is lies or at best misrepresentation of the truth in anyway. This is the fight we are engaged in today, a fight against the media world.

As a direct result of this so-called news report, we have received hate mail in the last 12 hours, which goes back to my earlier point about how easily people are led by the mainstream media.
